

DEVELOPING STUDENTS, ENGAGING COMMUNITIES: A Summit on Local Leadership for Afterschool, Summer, and Expanded Learning Opportunities in New York

May 12, 2014

10:00 – 10:30 Welcome

- Mayor Byron Brown, Buffalo
- United Way of Buffalo and Erie County President Michael Weiner

10:30 – 11:30 Ignite: Local Leadership Making Change Across New York

- Mayor Kathy Sheehan, Albany
- Chief Timmy Currier, Massena Police Department
- Mayor Lovely Warren, Rochester
- William Hughes, Columbia County Legislature
- Mayor Mike Spano, Yonkers
- Elane Daly, Cayuga County Director of Health and Human Services

Event Live Tweet
Using
#Afterschool4NY

11:30 – 12:00 Local Coordination and Quality Programming

- Bela Shah Spooner, National League of Cities
- Leonard Brock, ROC the Future

12:00 – 1:00 Buffalo State President Howard Cohen Welcomes to a Networking Lunch

- Student Catering Assistants, PS 302 Emerson School of Hospitality

1:00 – 1:15 Student Performance

- Drill Team, PS 6 Buffalo Elementary School of Technology
- Thomasa Carmichael, McKinley High School

1:15 – 2:15 A Community Unites Around Afterschool

- Moderator: David Rust, Say Yes to Education, Buffalo
- Mayor Byron Brown, Buffalo
- Dr. Pamela Brown, Superintendent, Buffalo Public Schools
- Carol Dankert Mauerer, Commissioner, Erie County Department of Social Services
- Claudia DeMegret, Wallace Foundation
- Kim Luce, After-School Network of Western New York
- Clotilde Perez-Bode Dedecker, President & CEO, Community Foundation for Greater Buffalo
- John Siskar, Senior Adviser for Buffalo State Educational Pipeline Initiative

2:15 – 3:00 Making It Happen: Resources for Getting Started and Moving Forward

- Vanessa Threatte, New York State Cradle to Career Alliance
- Nora Niedzielski-Eichner, New York State Afterschool Network

3:00 – 4:30 Site Visit

- McKinley High School, Community Action Organization 21st Century Afterschool Program
- Dr. Antonia Pantoja Community School of Academic Excellence Buffalo Public School #18, Child & Adolescent Treatment Services – Building Brighter Futures

4:30 – 6:00 Reception

- Jazz Ensemble, Hutch-Tech High School

