New York State Afterschool Network (NYSAN) is a statewide public-private partnership dedicated to promoting young people’s safety, learning and healthy development by increasing the quality and availability of programs during non-school hours, by effectively linking to school-day practice, and by building a coordinated system that serves all children, every day, all year round.

The ten regional networks affiliated with NYSAN are:

After-School Network of Western New York	Hudson Out-of-School Time Collaborative
Capital Region Extended Learning Opportunities	Hudson Valley Afterschool Network
Expanded Learning Network of Broome and Tioga	Nassau Coalition of Youth Service Agencies
Expanded Learning Network of the Southern Tier	North Country Afterschool Network
Greater Rochester After-School Alliance	*Partnership with Neighborhood Family Services Coalition
