

New York State Network for Youth Success: Power of 3:00 Ambassadors

Are you passionate about afterschool, summer, and other expanded learning programs? Would you like to learn how to turn that passion into action and be a better advocate for New York's children and families? If so, apply to join the New York State Network for Youth Success' first cohort of Power of 3:00 Ambassadors and become one of 8 dedicated advocates for afterschool, summer, and expanded learning!

What:

The New York State Network for Youth Success has just launched a statewide Power of 3:00 Ambassador program where passionate afterschool providers and supporters from across New York will work directly with staff from the Network's Policy Department to develop the advocacy and media skill set to become an effective advocate for the children and youth they serve.

Ambassadors will be required to attend one day-long training in August, host one Lights on Afterschool Event on National Lights On Afterschool Day, attend our annual Advocacy Day, host a springtime advocacy event, and participate in Power of 3:00 Ambassador update calls.

All travel expenses and hotel rooms for required Power of 3:00 Ambassador events will be covered.

The Class of 2017-2018 Power of 3:00 Ambassadors will be offered a spot in the program in June.

Required Dates:

- August 21-22, 2017 – Advocacy, Event Planning, and Media Outreach Training Overnight in Syracuse
- October 26, 2017 – National Lights On Afterschool Day
- January 2018 (Date TBD) – The Network's Annual Advocacy Day
- February or March 2018 – Host a local springtime advocacy event on a date of your choice
- Continuous from June 2017 through April 2018 – Power of 3:00 Ambassador Update Calls

How to Apply:
